

Am opposed to broadband over powerlines. This has the potential to cause severe interference to amateur radio operation. These operations may be critical in time of terrorist attacks (recall 9-11). Amateur radio may be the only communications possible, as it was at the World Trade Center site. I urge you not to limit these capabilities to further commercial greed.
Eugene M. Hoenig, M.D., N3HG